In sub-section (4), omit “if made in relation to any area outside Greater Bombay”.¹

In Sec. 33. in sub-section (4), for the words “the Revenue Commissioner” the words “such authority as the State Government may appoint in this behalf” shall be substituted.²

34. Competent authority may authorise erection of barriers on streets. The Commissioner and the District Superintendent in areas under their respective charges may, whenever in his opinion such action is necessary, authorise such Police officer as he thinks fit to erect barriers on any street for the purpose of stopping temporarily vehicles driven on such street and satisfy himself that the provisions of any law for the time being in force have not been contravened in respect of any such vehicle or by the driver of or the person in charge of such vehicle. The said authority may also make such orders as it deems fit for regulating the use of such barriers.

35. Power to make rules prohibiting disposal of the dead except at places set apart. (1) A competent authority may from time to time, make rules prohibiting the disposal of the dead, whether by cremation, burial or otherwise at places other than those set apart for such purpose:

Provided that no such rules shall be made in respect of any such town or place in which places have not been so set apart:

Provided further that the competent authority or any officer authorized by it in this behalf may, in its or his discretion on an application made to it or him by any person, grant to such person permission to dispose of the corpse of any deceased person at any place other than a place so set apart, if in its or his opinion such disposal is not likely to cause obstruction to traffic or disturbance of the public peace or is not objectionable for any other reason.

(2) Any rules made under sub-section (1) shall specify the places set apart for the disposal of the dead of different communities or sections of communities.

(3) All such rules shall be subject to the condition of previous publication and the date to be specified under Cl. (c) or Sec. 24 of the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. I of 1904), shall not be earlier than two months from the date on which the draft of the proposed rules is published.

Explanation. For the purposes of this section, a place set apart for the disposal of the dead means a place set apart for such purpose under any custom, usage or law for the time being in force.

36. Power of Commissioner or the District Superintendent and of other officers to give direction to the public. In areas under their respective charges the Commissioner, and subject to his orders every Police officer not inferior in rank to an Inspector, and the District Superintendent and subject to his orders any Police officer of not lower than such rank as may be specified by the State Government in that behalf, may, from time to time as occasion may arise, but not so as to contravene any rule or order under Sec. 33 give all such orders either orally or in writing as may be necessary to-

(a) direct the conduct of, and behaviour or action of persons constituting processions or assemblies on or along the streets;

(b) prescribe the routes by which and the times at which any such processions may or may not pass;

² Vide Gujarat Act 15 of 1964, Sec. 4 and Sch.

- (c) prevent obstructions on the occasion of all processions and assemblies and in the neighbourhood of all places of worship during the time of worship and in all cases when any street or public place or place of public resort may be thronged or liable to be obstructed;
- (d) keep order on and in all streets, quays, wharves, and at and within public bathing, washing and landing places, fairs, temples and all other places of public resort;
- (e) regulate and control the playing of music or singing, or the beating of drums, tom-toms and other instruments and the blowing or sounding of horns or other noisy instruments, in or near any street or public place;

¹[(ea) regulate and control the use of loudspeakers in or near any public place or in any place of public entertainment,]

- (f) make reasonable orders subordinate to and in furtherance of any order made by a competent authority under Secs. 33, 35, 37 to 40, 42, 43 and 45 of this Act.

37. Power to prohibit certain for prevention of disorder. (1) The Commissioner and the District Magistrate in areas under their respective charges, may whenever and for such time as he shall consider necessary for the preservation of public peace or public safety by a notification publicly promulgated or addressed to individuals, prohibit at any town, village or place or in the vicinity of any such town, village or place-

- (a) the carrying of arms, cudgels, swords, spears, bludgeons, guns, knives, sticks or lathis, or any other article, which is capable of being used for causing physical violence;
- (b) the carrying of any corrosive substance or of explosives;
- (c) the carrying, collection and preparation of stones or other missiles or instruments or means of a casting or impelling missiles;
- (d) the exhibition of persons or corpses of figures or effigies thereof;
- (e) the public utterance of cries, singing of songs, playing of music;
- (f) delivery of harangues, the use of gestures or mimetic representations, and the preparation, exhibition or dissemination of pictures, symbols, placards or any other object or thing which may in the opinion of such authority offend against decency of morality or undermine the security of or tend to overthrow the State.

(2) If any person goes armed with any such article or carries any corrosive substance or explosive or missile in contravention of such prohibition, he shall be liable to be disarmed or the corrosive substance or explosive missile shall be liable to be seized from him by any Police officer, and the article, corrosive substance, explosive or missile so seized shall be forfeited to the State Government.

(3) The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may also by order in writing prohibit any assembly or procession whenever and for so long as it considers such prohibition to be necessary for the preservation of the public order:

Provided that no such prohibition shall remain in force for more than fifteen days without the sanction of the State Government.

- (4) The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may also by public notice temporarily reserve for any public purpose any sheet or public place and prohibit persons from entering the area so reserved, except under such conditions as may be prescribed by such authority.

Gujarat Amendment:

In Sec. 37 in sub-section (1), after clause (C), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:

“(cc) the carrying of burning or lighted torches in a procession”;¹

In sub section (2), at each of the places where the words ‘corrosive substance or explosive or missile’ and the words “corrosive substance, explosive or missile” occur, the words “corrosive substance, explosive, missile, instrument, means of burning or lighted torch” shall be substituted.²

38. Power to prohibit, etc. continuance of music, sound or noise. (1) If the Commissioner or District superintendent is satisfied from the report of an officer in charge of a Police Station or other information received by him that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent annoyance, disturbance, discomfort or injury or risk or annoyance, disturbance, discomfort or injury to the public or to any persons who dwell or occupy property in the vicinity, he may, by a written order issue such directions as he may consider necessary to any person for preventing, prohibiting, controlling or regulating-

- (a) the incidence or continuance in or upon any premises of-
- (i) any vocal or instrumental music,
 - (ii) sounds caused by the playing, beating, clashing, blowing or use in any manner whatsoever of any instrument, appliance or apparatus or contrivance which is capable of ³[producing or reproducing sound], or
- (b) the carrying on, in or upon, any premises or any trade, avocation or operation resulting in or attended with noise.

(2) The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may, either on its own motion or on the application of any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1), either rescind, modify or alter any such order:

Provided that before any such application is disposed of, the said authority shall afford to the applicant an opportunity of appearing before it either in person or by pleader and showing cause against the order and shall, if it rejects any such application either wholly or in part, record its reasons for such rejection.

39. Issue of orders for prevention of riot, etc. (1) In order to prevent or suppress any riot or grave disturbance of peace, the Commissioner and the Superintendent, in areas under their respective charges, may temporarily close or take possession of any building or place, and may exclude all or any persons therefrom, or may allow access hereto to such persons only and on such terms as he shall deem expedient. All persons concerned shall be bound to conduct themselves in accordance with such orders as the authority making orders may make and notify in exercise of, he authority hereby vested in it.

(2) Compensation to lawful occupier of building or place closed or taken possession of. If the lawful occupier of such building or place suffers substantial loss or injury by reason of the action taken under sub-section (1) he shall be entitled, on application made to the authority concerned within one month from the date of such action, to receive reasonable compensation for such loss or injury, unless such action was in the opinion of such authority rendered necessary either by the use to which such building or place was put or intended to be put or by the misconduct of persons having access thereto.

(3) Disputes as to compensation to be settled. In the event of any dispute in any case under sub-section (2) the decision of the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate, shall be conclusive as to the amount (if any) to be paid, and as to the person to whom it is to be paid.

Gujarat Amendment:

In Sec. 39 in sub section (3), for “Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate, as the case may be”, substitute “District Magistrate”.¹

40. Issue of orders for maintenance of order at religious ceremonies, etc. (1) In any case of an actual or intended religious or ceremonial or corporate display or exhibition or organised assemblage in any street or public place, as to which or the conduct of or participation in which it shall appear to a competent authority that a dispute or contention exists which is likely to lead to grave disturbance of the peace, such authority may give such orders as to the conduct of the persons concerned towards each other and towards the public as it shall deem necessary and reasonable under the circumstances, regard being had to the apparent legal rights and to any established practice of the parties and of the persons interested. Every such order shall be published in the town or place wherein it is to operate, and all persons concerned shall be bound to conform to the same.

(2) Any order under sub-section (1) shall be subject to a decree, injunction or order made by a court having jurisdiction and, shall be recalled or altered on its being made to appear to the authority making the order that such order is inconsistent with a judgment, decree, injunction or order of such court, on the complaint, suit or an application of any person interested, as to the rights and duties of any persons affected by the order aforesaid.

41. Police to provide against disorder, etc. at places of amusement and public meetings. (1) For the purpose of preventing serious disorder or breach of the law or manifest and imminent danger to the persons assembled at any public place of amusement or at an assembly or meeting to which the public are invited or which is open to the public, the senior Police officer of highest rank superior to that of constable, present at such place of amusement or such assembly or meeting may, subject to such rules and orders as may have been lawfully made, give such reasonable directions as to the mode of admission of the public to, and for securing the peaceful and lawful conduct of the proceedings and the maintenance of the public safety at such place of amusement or such assembly or meeting, as he thinks necessary and all persons shall be bound to conform to every such reasonable direction.

(2) Police to have free access thereto- The Police shall have free access to every such place of amusement, assembly or meeting, for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of sub-section (1) and to any direction made thereunder.

² Section 42 of the Act has been deleted, vide Maharashtra Act 28 of 1964.

43. District Magistrate may take special measures to prevent outbreak of epidemic disease at fair, etc.

(1) Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner or District Magistrate that any place in the areas under their respective charges, at which, on account of a pilgrimage, fair or other such occurrence, large bodies of persons have assembled or are likely to assemble is visited or will probably be visited with an outbreak of any epidemic disease, he may take such special measures and may by public notice prescribe such regulations to be observed by the residents of the said place and by persons present thereat or repairing thereto or returning therefrom as he shall deem necessary to prevent the outbreak of such disease or they spread thereof.

(2) It shall be lawful for the District Magistrate or for the Collector or the Chief Presidency Magistrate on the requisition of the Commissioner or the District Magistrate to assess and levy such reasonable fees on persons falling under the provisions of sub-section (1) as will provide for the expenses of the arrangements for sanitation and the preservation of order at and about the place of assemblage.

(3) When the place of assemblage is within the limits of a municipality or corporation such sums as shall be necessary for the purposes aforesaid may be recovered from the municipality or corporation.

Gujarat Amendment:

In the principal Act, Sec. 42 shall be deleted.¹

In Sec. 43 in sub-section (2), omit "or the Chief Presidency Magistrate".²

44. Destruction of stray dogs. (1) The Commissioner and the District Superintendent in areas under their respective charges, may, from time to time, by public notice, proclaim that any stray dogs found, during such period as may be specified in the said notice, wandering in the streets or in any public place may be destroyed, and any dog so found within such period may be destroyed accordingly.

(2) The authority empowered under sub-section (1) may by public notice require that every dog, while in any street or public place and not led by some persons, shall be muzzled in such a manner as effectually to prevent it from biting, while not obstructing its breathing or drinking, and the Police may, so long as such notice remains in force, destroy, or take possession of and detain, any dog found loose without muzzle in any street or place beyond the premises of the owner thereof:

Provided that any dog so found, wearing a collar on which an apparently genuine name and address of an owner is inscribed, shall not, unless it is rabid, be forthwith destroyed, but information of the detention thereof shall forthwith be sent by post or otherwise to such owner.

(3) Any dog which has been detained under sub-section (2) for a period of three clear days without the owner providing a muzzle and paying all expenses connected with such detention may be destroyed or sold with the sanction and under the orders of the competent authority.

(4) The proceeds of the sale of any dog under sub-section (3) shall be applied, as far as may be, in discharge of the expenses incurred in connection with its detention, and the balance, if any, shall form part of the consolidated fund of the State.

² Vide Gujarat Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects, Order, 1960.

(5) Any expenses incurred in connection with the destruction or detention of any dog under this section shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), be recoverable from the owner thereof upon a warrant issued by the competent authority as if it were a warrant under Sec. 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898).

45. Destruction of suffering or unfit animals. (1) Any Police officer who in any street or public place other than a place of worship, finds any animal other than a bull or a cow so diseased, or so severely injured, and in such a physical condition, that in his opinion it cannot without cruelty be removed, shall, if the owner is absent or refuses to consent to the destruction of the animal at once summon the Veterinary Practitioner in charge of the area in which the animal is found and, if the Veterinary Practitioner certifies that the animal is mortally injured, or so severely injured, or so diseased, or in such a physical condition, that it is cruel to keep it alive, the Police officer may, without the consent of the owner, destroy the animal or cause it to be destroyed:

Provided that if in the opinion of the Veterinary Practitioner the animal can be removed from the place where it is found without causing it great suffering, and, if the owner or person in charge of the animal or in their absence any other person on the spot is willing and offers to remove the animal to a veterinary Hospital or Pinjrapole within such time as the Veterinary Practitioner considers reasonable, the Veterinary Practitioner shall allow the animal to be removed by such owner, person in charge of the animal or other person. If the owner or person in charge of the animal or such other person is unwilling or fails so to remove the animal, the Veterinary Practitioner may direct the Police officer to remove the animal before it is destroyed from the place where it is found to such other place as he may think fit ;

Provided further that when the animal is destroyed in any street or public place it shall, as far as possible, be screened from the public gaze while it is being destroyed.

(2) The State Government may appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be Veterinary Practitioners and may declare the areas of which they shall be in charge for the purposes of this Act.

46. Powers under this Chapter to be exercised by District Superintendent subject to the control of District Magistrate and Commissioner and by District Magistrates subject to the control of State Government. Every power conferred by this Chapter on a District Superintendent not specially empowered by the State Government to exercise that power or on any officer subordinate to him shall be exercised by him subject to the orders of the District Magistrate and all rules, regulations and orders made under this Chapter shall, if made by the ¹[Revenue Commissioner] be governed by such rules and orders as the State Government may, from time to time, make in this behalf and, if made by the District Magistrate or the District Superintendent specially empowered in that behalf, shall be subject to the provisions of Sec. 17.

CHAPTER V

Special measures for maintenance of public order and safety of State

I. Employment of additional Police, recovery of cost thereof and of riot compensation-its assessment and recovery.

47. Employment of additional Police on application of a person. (1) The Commissioner or District Superintendent may, on the application of any person, depute any additional number of Police to keep the peace, to preserve order or to enforce any of the provisions of this or any other Act in respect of any particular class or classes of offences or to perform any other Police duties at any place in the area under his charge.

(2) Such additional Police shall be employed at the cost of the person making the application, but shall be subject to the orders of the Police authorities and shall be employed for such period as the appointing authority thinks fit.

(3) If the person upon whose application such additional Police are employed shall at any time make a written requisition to the appointing authority to which the application for the employment of additional Police was made, for the withdrawal of the said Police, he shall be relieved for the cost thereof at the expiration of such period not exceeding one month from the date of the delivery of such requisition, as the State Government or the appointing authority, as the case may be, shall determine.

48. Employment of additional police at large works and when apprehension regarding behaviour of employees exists. (1) Whenever it appears to the State Government or a competent authority that-

(a) any large work which is being carried on or any public amusement which is being conducted is likely to impede the traffic or to attract a large number of people, or

(b) that the behaviour or a reasonable apprehension of the behaviour, of the persons employed on any railway, canal or other public work, or in or upon any manufactory or other commercial concern under construction or in operation at any place, necessitates the employment of additional police at such place, the State Government or the competent authority may depute such additional Police to the said place as it shall think fit and keep the said Police employed at such place for so long as such necessity shall appear to it to continue.

(2) Such additional Police shall be employed at the cost of the person by whom the work, amusement, manufactory or concern is being constructed, conducted or carried on and the said person shall pay the costs therefore at such rates as the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be, shall from time to time require.

49. Recovery of cost of additional police employed under Secs. 47 and 48. In case of any dispute under Sec. 47 or 48 the decision of Chief Presidency Magistrate in Greater Bombay and the District Magistrate, in the district shall be conclusive as to the amount to be paid and as to the person by whom it is to be paid and the sum, so ascertained may, on the requisition of the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate, be recovered by the Collector as if it were an arrear of land revenue due by the person found to be answerable therefore.

Gujarat Amendment:

In Sec 49, omit "the Chief Presidency Magistrate in Greater Bombay and", "in the district", and "the Chief Presidency Magistrate or".¹

50. Employment of additional police in cases of special danger public peace. (1) If in the opinion of the State Government any area is in a disturbed or dangerous condition or in which the conduct of the inhabitants or of any particular section of the inhabitants renders it expedient temporarily to employ additional Police, it may by notification in the official Gazette specify-

- (a) the area (hereinafter called “the disturbance area”) in which the additional Police is to be employed;
- (b) the period for which the additional Police is to be employed ;

Provided that the period fixed under Cl. (b) may be extended by the State Government from time to time, if in its opinion it is necessary to do so in the general interest of the public. The cost of the additional Police shall be a tax imposed under this section and shall be recovered in the manner prescribed in the succeeding sub-sections.

- (2) The decision of the State Government under Cls. (0) and (b) of sub. section (1) shall be final.
- (3) On the issue of such notification. the State Government may require,-
 - (a) in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a Corporation, the Municipal Commissioner, the Collector or any other authority ;
 - (b) in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a municipality, the municipality, the Collector or any other authority;
 - (c) in any disturbance area which is outside the areas specified in Cls. (a) and (b), the Collector or any other authority, to recover, whether in whole or in part, the cost of such additional Police generally from all persons who are inhabitants of the disturbance area or specially from any particular section or sections, or class or classes to such persons, and in such proportion as the State Government may direct:

Provided that where the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality is directed to recover such cost, an additional sum not exceeding 3 per cent of the amount of such cost shall also be recoverable.

- (4) (i) The State Government may require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality to recover such cost and the additional sum by an addition to the general or property tax which shall be imposed and levied in all or such of the municipal wards, sub-wards or sections thereof, as the State Government may direct. Every addition to the general or property tax imposed under this sub-section shall be recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality from each person liable therefore in the same manner as the general or property tax due from him. The provisions of the relevant Municipal Act shall apply to any such addition as if it were part of the general or property tax levied under the said act. Such addition shall be a charge along with the general or property tax, on the properties, in such Municipal wards or sub-wards or sections.
 - (ii) The State Government may also require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality to recover such cost and the additional sum from each person liable therefor under sub-section (3) in such manner as the State Government may direct.
 - (iii) Where the Municipal Commissioner or a Municipality makes default in imposing and levying any such tax or in making such recovery, the State Government may direct the Collector to impose and levy such tax or to make such recovery.
- (5) Every amount recoverable by the Collector or other authority under this section shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue due by the person liable therefor.
 - (6) It shall be lawful for the State Government by order to exempt any person from liability to bear any portion of the cost of such additional Police.

- (7) Out of the total amount recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or by a Municipality under sub-section (4) or (5) whether before or after the coming into operation of this Act the amount of the cost shall be paid to the State Government and the balance, if any, shall be credited to the municipal fund constituted under the relevant Municipal Act. Such amount of cost shall be paid to the State Government every three months.

Explanation.- In this section the expression “inhabitants” when used with reference to any area includes persons who themselves by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immovable property within such area and landlords who themselves or by their agents or servants collect rent from holders or occupiers of land in such area notwithstanding that they do not actually reside therein.

51. Compensation for injury caused by unlawful assembly, how recover able-Date to be fixed for liability. (1) When any loss or damage is caused to any property or when death results or grievous hurt is caused to any person or persons, by anything done in the prosecution of the common object of an unlawful assembly, the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify-
- (a) the area (hereinafter called “the disturbance area”), in which in its opinion such unlawful assembly was held;
 - (b) the date on which or the period during which such unlawful assembly was held.

The decision of the State Government under Cls. (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) shall be final.

- (3) On the issue of a notification under sub-section (1), the Chief Presidency Magistrate in Greater Bombay the District Magistrate in Districts ¹[with the previous sanction of the Revenue Commissioner], may, after such inquiries he deems necessary, determine the amount of the compensation which, in his opinion, should be paid to any person or persons in respect of the loss or damage or death or grievous hurt aforesaid. The amount of compensation shall be a tax imposed under this section and shall be (covered in the manner prescribed in the succeeding sub-sections).
- (4) The Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate may require-
- (a) in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a Corporation, the Municipal Commissioner, the Collector or another authority;
 - (b) in any disturbance area which is within the limits of a municipality, the municipality, the Collector or any other authority; and
 - (c) in any disturbance area which is outside the area specified in Cls. (a) and (b), the Collector or any other authority. .

to recover the amount (hereinafter called “the compensation amount”) as determined under sub-section (3) either in whole or in part and where the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality is required to recover such amount. an additional sum not exceeding three per cent of the compensation amount (hereinafter referred to as “the Municipal recovery cost”), generally from all persons who were inhabitants of the disturbance area or specially from any particular section or sections, or class or classes of such persons in the said area, and in such proportion as the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate may direct.

- (5) (1) The Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate may require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality concerned to recover the compensation amount and the Municipal recovery cost by an addition to the general or property tax which shall be imposed and levied in the disturbance area. Every addition to the general or property tax imposed under this sub section shall be recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality concerned from each person liable therefor in the same manner as the general or property tax due from him. The provisions of the relevant Municipal Act shall apply to any such addition as if it were part of the general or property tax levied under the relevant Municipal Act. Such addition shall be charged along with the general or property tax on the properties in the area aforesaid.

- (ii) The Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate as the case may be, may also require the Municipal Commissioner or the Municipality concerned to recover the compensation amount and the municipal recovery cost from each person liable therefor under sub-section (4) in such manner as he may direct.
- (6) Where a Municipal Commissioner or a Municipality makes a default in imposing and levying any such tax or in making any such recovery, the State Government may direct the Collector to impose and levy such tax or to make such recovery.
- (7) Every amount recoverable by the Collector or other authority under this section shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue due by the person liable therefor.
- (8) Out of the total amount recovered by the Municipal Commissioner or by a Municipality under sub-section (5) or (7), whether before or after the coming into operation of this Act, the proportionate amount of the municipal recovery cost shall be deducted therefrom and the amount not exceeding the compensation amount determined by the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate as the case may be under sub-section (3) shall be paid to him for the payment of compensation to the persons entitled thereto and the balance, if any, shall be credited to the Municipal fund constituted under the relevant Municipal Act. Such amount shall be paid to the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate as the case may be every three months.
- (9) It shall be lawful for the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate as the case may be by order, to exempt any persons from liability to pay any portion of the compensation amount. .
- (10) The State Government may, (a) on its own motion, or (b) on an application made by a person within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the District Magistrate as the case may be granting or refusing to grant an exemption thereunder, set aside or modify such order.

Explanation. In this section the expression “inhabitants” when used with reference to any disturbance area includes persons who themselves or by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immovable property within such area and landlords who themselves or by their agents or servants collect rent from holders or occupiers of land in such area, notwithstanding that they do not actually reside therein.

Gujarat Amendment:

State Government or by a Magistrate or officer under any provision of this Act, and the due publication or issue thereof may be proved by the production of a copy thereof in the Official Gazette, or of a copy thereof signed by such Magistrate, or officer, and by him certified to be a true copy of an original published or issued according to the provisions of the section of the Act applicable thereto.

156. Rules and orders not invalidated by defect of form or irregularity in procedure. No rule, order, direction, adjudication, inquiry or notification made or published, and no act done under any provision of this Act, or of any rule made under this Act, or in substantial conformity to the same, shall be deemed illegal, void, invalid or insufficient by reason of any defect of form or any irregularity of procedure.
157. Presumption in prosecutions for contravention of directions issued under Sec. 55, 56, [57, 57-A or 63-AA]. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, in a prosecution for an, offence for the contravention of a direction issued under Sec. 45, 56, [57 or 63-AA] on the production of an authentic copy of the order, it shall, until the contrary is proved and the burden of proving which shall lie on the accused, be presumed-
- (a) that the order was made by the authority competent under this Act to make it ;
 - (b) that the authority making the order was satisfied that the grounds on or the purpose for which it was made existed, and that it was necessary to make the same; and
 - (c) that the order was otherwise valid and in conformity with the provisions of this Act.
- ¹[157-A. Officers holding charge of or succeeding to vacancies competent to exercise powers. Whenever in consequence of the office of a Commissioner, Magistrate or Police officer becoming vacant, any officer holds charge of the post of such Commissioner, Magistrate, or Police officer or succeeds, either temporarily or permanently, to his office, such officer shall be competent to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties respectively conferred and imposed by this Act on such Commissioner, Magistrate or Police officer, as the case may be].
158. Forfeiture of bond entered into by person permitted to enter or return to the area from which he was directed to remove himself. If any person permitted under sub-section (1) of Sec.63 fails to observe any condition imposed under the said sub-section or in the bond entered into by him under sub-section (2) of the said section his bond shall be forfeited and any person bound thereby shall pay the penalty thereof or show cause to the satisfaction of the court why such penalty should not be paid.
159. No Magistrate or Police officer to be liable to penalty or damage for act done in good faith in pursuance of duty. ²[No Revenue Commissioner, Magistrate] or Police officer shall be liable to any penalty or to payment of damages on account of an act done in good faith, in pursuance or intended pursuance or any duty imposed or any authority conferred on him by any provision of this Act or any other law for the time being in force or any rule, order or direction made or given therein.
160. No public servant liable as aforesaid for giving effect in good faith to any rule, order or direction issued with apparent authority. No public servant or person duly appointed or authorised shall be liable to any penalty or to payment of any damages for giving effect in good faith to any such order or direction issued with apparent authority by the State Government or by a person empowered in that behalf under this Act or any rule, order or direction made or given thereunder.

² These words were substituted for the words "No Magistrate" by Bom 8 of 1958, Sec. 3, Schedule.

161. *Suits or prosecutions in respect of acts done under colour of duty as aforesaid not to be entertained or to be dismissed if not instituted*¹[within prescribed period]. (1) In any case of alleged offence by the ²[Revenue Commissioner] a Magistrate, Police officer or other person, or of a wrong alleged to have been done by such ²[Revenue Commissioner], Magistrate, Police officer or other person, by any act done under colour or in excess of any such duty or authority as aforesaid, or wherein, it shall appear to the court that the offence or wrong if committed or done was of the character aforesaid, the prosecution suit shall not be entertained, or shall be dismissed, if instituted, more than six months after the date of the act complained of:

³[Provided that, any such prosecution against Police officer may be entertained by the court, if instituted with the previous sanction of the State Government within two years from the date of the offence].

(2) In suits as aforesaid one month's notice of suit to be given with sufficient description of wrong complained of. In this case of an intended suit on account of such a wrong as aforesaid, the person intending to sue shall be bound to give to the alleged wrong doer one month's notice at least of the intended suit with sufficient description of the wrong complained of, failing which such suit shall be dismissed.

(3) Plaint to set forth service of notice and tender of amend. The plaintiff shall set forth that a notice as aforesaid has been served on the defendant and the date of such service, and shall state whether any, and if any, what tender of amends has been made by the defendant. A copy of the said notice shall be annexed to the plaint endorsed or accompanied with a declaration by the plaintiff of the time and manner of service thereof.

Gujarat Amendment:

In Sec. 161, in sub-section (1), and in the marginal note thereto, for the words “six months” the words “one year” shall be substituted.

162. Licences and written permissions to specify conditions, etc., and to be signed. (1) Any licence or written permission granted under the provisions of this Act shall specify the period and locality for which and the conditions and restrictions subject to which, the same is granted, and shall be given under the signature of the competent authority and such fee than be charged therefor as is prescribed by any rule under this Act in that behalf.

(2) Revocation of licences, etc. Any licence or written permission granted under this Act may at any time be suspended or revoked by the competent authority, if any of its conditions or restrictions is infringed or evaded by the person to whom it has been granted, or if such person is convicted of any offence in any matter to which such licence or permission relates.

(3) When licence revoked, etc., grantee to be deemed without licence. When any such licence or written permission is suspended or revoked, or when the period for which the same was granted has expired, the person to whom the same was granted shall for all purposes of this Act, be deemed to be without a licence or written permission. until the order for suspending or revoking the same is cancelled, or until the same is renewed, as the case may be.

- (4) Grantee to produce licence, etc., when required. Every person to whom any such licence or written permission has been granted, shall, while the same remains in force, at all reasonable time, produce the same, if so required by a Police officer.

Explanation. For the purpose of this section any such infringement or evasion by, or conviction of, a servant or other agent acting on behalf of the person to whom the licence or written permission has been granted shall be deemed to be infringement or evasion by, or as the case may be, conviction of the person to whom such licence or written permission has been granted.

163. Public notices how to be given. Any public notice required to be given under any of the provisions of this Act shall be in writing under the signature of a competent authority and shall be published in the locality to be affected thereby, by affixing copies thereof in conspicuous public places, or by proclaiming the same with beat of drums, or by advertising the same in such local newspapers- English or regional language or Hindi- as the said authority may deem fit, or by any two or more of these means and by any other means it may think suitable.
164. Consent. etc., of a competent authority may be proved by writing under his signature. Whenever under this Act, the doing or the omitting to do anything or the validity of anything depends upon the consent, approval, declaration, opinion or satisfaction of a competent authority, a written document signed by a competent authority purporting to convey or set forth such consent, approval, declaration, opinion or satisfaction shall be sufficient evidence thereof.
165. Signature on notices, etc., may be stamped. Every licence, written permission, notice, or other document, not being a summons or warrant or search warrant, required by this Act, or by any rule thereunder, to bear the signature of the Commissioner, shall be deemed to be properly signed if it bears a facsimile of his signature stamped thereon.
166. Persons interested may apply to State Government to annul, reverse or alter any rule or order.
(1) In the case of any rule or order made by the State Government under an authority conferred by this Act and requiring the public or a particular class of persons to perform some duty or act, or to conduct or order themselves or those under their control in a manner therein described, it shall be competent to any person interested to apply to the State Government by a memorial given to a Secretary to the State Government to annul, reverse, or alter the rule or order aforesaid on the ground of its being unlawful, oppressive or unreasonable.
- (2) When a suit shall lie to the District Court to declare a rule or order unlawful. After such an application as aforesaid and the rejection thereof wholly or in part or after the lapse of four months without an answer to such application or a decision thereon published by the State Government, it shall be competent to the person interested and deeming the rule or order contrary to law to institute a suit against the State for a declaration that the rule or order is unlawful either wholly or in part. The decision in such suit shall be subject to appeal ; and a rule or order finally adjudged to be unlawful shall by the State Government be annulled or reversed or so altered as to make it conformable to law.
167. Repeal and saving. (1) The enactments ¹[specified in Part I of Schedule I] are hereby repealed:
Provided that-
- (i) all rules prescribed, appointments made, powers conferred, orders made or passed, directions and certificates issued, consent, permit, permission or licences given, summons, or warrants issued or served, persons arrested or detained or discharged on bail or bond, search warrants issued, bond forfeited, penalty incurred under any such enactment shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been respectively prescribed, made, conferred, given, passed, served, arrested, detained, discharged, forfeited and incurred thereunder.

(ii) all references made in any Bombay Act to any of the Acts hereby repealed shall be read as if made to the corresponding provision of this Act.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to affect-

- (a) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of any thing done or suffered to be done in an area before the date on which the provisions of this Act come into force in such area;
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred before such date;
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred or inflicted in respect of any act before such date;
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment;
- (e) any legal proceeding pending in any Court or before any officer on the aforesaid date or anything done or suffered to be done in the course of such proceedings; and any such proceeding or any appeal or revisional proceedings arising out of such proceeding shall be instituted, continued, or disposed of, as the case may be, as if this Act had not come into force.

¹[(2-A) On the commencement of this Act in that part of the State to which it is extended by the Bombay Police (Extension and Amendment) Act, 1959 (Bom. (XXXIV of 1959), the laws specified in Part II of Schedule I and in Schedule IV, as in force in that part of the State, shall stand repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect-

- (a) the previous operation, of any law so repealed, or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (b) the right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed; or,
- (c) any penalty incurred in respect of anything done against any law so repealed; and any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability or penalty as aforesaid may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty may be imposed, as if this Act had not come into force in the relevant part of the State:

Provided further, that subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken (including any rule prescribed, appointment made, power conferred, order made or passed, direction or certificate issued, consent permit, permission or licence given, summons or warrant issued or served, person arrested or detained or discharged on bail or bond, search warrant issued or bond forfeited) under any such repealed law shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of this Act, as if the said provisions were in force in the relevant part of the State when such thing was done or such action was taken, and shall continue in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act:

Provided also that any reference to any such repealed law, or to any provision thereof, in any law for the time being in force, shall be construed as a reference to this Act or to the corresponding provision thereof].

(3) The enactment specified in Schedule III in its application to the ¹[pre-Reorganisation State of Bombay, excluding the transferred territories,] is hereby amended to the extent and in the manner mentioned in the fourth column thereof.

168. ²[Saving of laws relating to Village Police and Reserve Police]. Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of the Bombay Village Police Act, 1867 (Bom. VIII of 1867), [that Act as in force in the Kutch area of the State of Bombay or of the Saurashtra Village Police Ordinance, 1949 (Sau. Ord. XXXII of 1949), or any law corresponding thereto in force in any part of the State] or any enactment which may be made in regard to the reserve Police.
