Per Scooter / Rickshaw	Rs. 5/-

4) Jampore Beach:- Towards south, at Moti Daman side Jampore Beach leads on to the border of Gujarat. It is a pleasant spot, where one communes with nature in sublime solitude. This beach is most suited to swimming as it is danger-free. During low-tide, one can walk on the soft wet sand right into the sea. Don't miss a picnic with your family in the shade of Casurina plantation on the sea-shore.

5) Church of Bom Jesus, Moti Daman :- The church of Bom Jesus situated in fort area Moti Daman was completed in its present form in 1603 AD. The richly carved doorway and the highly decorated interiors together with the lofty ceiling and burnishing alter invite aesthetic attention. In the early days of the Portuguese rule Bom Jesus was a parish church.

6) Fort of Moti Daman :- The Fort of Moti Daman situated near Moti Daman Jetty. The massive fort that runs round the settlement like a girdle, dates back to 1559 AD. The colossal structure in the present form encompasses about 30,000sq. mts. with 10 bastions and two gateways. The fort is protected by moat on the land side and also connects the river to the sea.

7) Fort of Nani Daman :- The small fort situated at Nani Daman Jetty, with high stone walls encloses an area of 12,250 sq. mts. It has three bastions and two gateways. The most conspicuous part of the Fort is the giant gateway facing the river with a large statue of St. Jerome and side of the gateway. The imposing church of our Lady of the Sea is the principal building within the Fort.

DIU

1) Nagoa Beach :- It is located in the Nagoa hamlet of the village of Bucharwada. The Beach is exceptionally beautiful and quiet. In this beautiful horse-shoe (semi-circular) shaped beach, various water sports facilities are available. It is safe for swimming. Plenty of branching palm Hoka trees whisper and sway in the intoxicating sea breeze all day long. The virginity of the beach and serenity of the surroundings give you peace and pleasure beyond expression.

2) St. Paul Church, Diu :- It is located in centre of Diu. St. Paul's Church is dedicated to our Lady of Immaculate Conception. The construction of the Church was started in 1601 and was completed in the year 1610. The main façade of the church, perhaps the most elaborate of all Portuguese churches in India, is adorned with curiously treated volutes and shell-like motifs, and immediately attracts visitors. The façade has been illuminated by flood lights adding to the evening city glow.

3) Chakratirath Beach :- Chakratirath Beach is centrally located and contiguous to the town at Diu. This beach serves the locals as well as domestic and international tourists, providing them with an opportunity to have a worthwhile break. The hill and the surrounding areas and landscape has been beautiful illuminated.

4) Diu Museum :- The old St. Thomas Church situated near St. Paul Church Diu has been converted into a museum which houses the antique statues, various stone inscriptions of the earlier rulers. Wooden carvings, idols, shadow-clocks and other important artifacts have been collected from various sites and displayed.

5) Gangeshwar Temple :- This is situated 3 km. away from Diu in Fudam Village. A Shivlinga, known as Gangeshwar, is in the midst of the rocks on the seashore, and is washed by the tidal waves of the sea.

6) Fort of Diu :- The fort commands a magnificent view of sea. It was constructed between 1535 and 1541 AD after a defence alliance, concluded by the Bahadurshah, Sultan of Gujarat, and the Portuguese when the former was attacked by Humayun, the Mughal Emperor.

7) Fortress of Panikota :- The Fortress of Panikota is a magnificent stone structure in the sea, built right at the mouth of the creek. It can be reached only by a canoe or a motor launch. Approximately one nautical mile from the Diu Jetty, it also has a light house and a small chapel dedicated to Our Lady of the sea. Located in the middle of the Sea, the fortress make for a beautiful view whether seen from the jetty, from the Fort, from the village of Ghoghla or from Diu proper.

8) Ghoghla Beach:- The Ghoghla Beach situated at village Ghoghala is among the six beautiful beaches in Diu District. A tourist complex built here provides all basic amenities to tourists.
